

Tea and Poetry
 Mixing tea
 with poetry
 is high currency
 high velocity
 high vibrancy
 simmering into a
 poem special
 for value with highest majesty.

Rose Petals
 Sometimes rose petals
 bring sun to a tea party floating to the rim
 pouring joy
 pouring gold light
 within our sight
 misting us.

Time for Tea
 Dancing free
 with ebony and ivory
 milk like clouds open up into angel flowers tea cups gleaming and halo glowing with steaming ginseng for energy dripping into time
 like a princess
 whom tea is London's chariots of good china.

Sugar Drops
 Like twinkling star dust
 from the heavens above
 sugar drops
 into our tea cups
 magical moments retire
 bringing sweet taste
 from the heavenly moons light.

Tea of the Summer

Through the herbal essence chamomile rests our senses for many a mile
 that's why we name
 her chamomile
 our earth brings birth
 growing and bestowing
 flowers petals pointing wands prismatic luck
 with every strong raindrops look we are in paradise's book with all of nature's notorious device of nice.

Honey

Soothes our moments
 heals our wounds words carries our sweet embraces on bee's skillful gifted graces with milk the color of strong space of honeys sensitive yellow golden lace dissolving to the softest embrace hugging our day
 with a playful reflections ray.
